

PRESENTS

MELTHAM'S OLDE ALE TRAIL SUNDAY 20TH MAY 2018 at 10am

From Loose Pulleys to Stiff Shackles – join us for a 4 mile walk round some of the 30 sites of Meltham's old, curiously named, alehouses and inns from the 17th century to more recent times.

The walk also includes a visit to Meltham's newest microbrewery, The Three Fiends and finishes at Waggon and Horses which is one of the original licenced public houses in Meltham.

Meet at 10am at the Carlile Street Car Park,
Meltham HD9 4AE

REFRESHMENTS AVAILABLE AFTER AT WAGGON AND HORSES

For more information visit our website www.walkingmeltham.com/route or contact Ann on 07779936026 or email ann@chesh.info
Find us on Facebook at Meltham Walkers are Welcome

All walks are free and will start punctually
There are almost invariably hills, some of them steep
Changeable weather, mud and boggy ground, slippery steps or stiles may be encountered on the walks
Families are welcome, children 16 and under must be accompanied by parent/carer
Dogs are welcome but must be on a lead
All participants are responsible for their own safety

